The following questions were asked during the meeting.

- Can a mail service provider validate that a customer has been pre-verified and approved for an incentive?
 - Right now the verification occurs at postage payment as opposed to when the file is uploaded. If the file is checked at upload it would allow customers to obtain the pre-verification required – is it possible to change?
 - How is someone identified as having been pre-verified?
 - What if a client is producing multiple different pieces, how does the Mail Service Provider know which ones are pre-verified and which are not?
 - Is this for all incentives?
